

Edward Claey's

Joris Claey's

Joris and Edward Claey's represent a branch of the fourth generation of the Leon Claey's family, whose business legacy dates back to 1906. As key figures at Cennini Holding SFO, they continue the family tradition of entrepreneurship and innovation within the Flemish business community.

Joris Claey's holds a Master in Law from KU Leuven and a European Master in Law & Economics from Universität Hamburg and Università di Bologna. Before joining the family office, Joris gained valuable experience at Eubelius law firm, where he developed expertise in legal and financial structuring.

Edward Claey's holds a Master in Applied Economics from KU Leuven. With over 23 years as a partner at Cennini Holding SFO, Edward previously served as CEO at Software Developments and Natch Europe, bringing operational and digital experience to the family office.

Today, Cennini Holding manages for over 25 years the economic interests of the Claey's family across a range of asset classes, with a particular focus on private equity, real estate, and a specialized expertise in private debt.